

Sr. Helen Prejean addresses New teachers and students in Toronto

Sr. Helen Prejean, csj, addressed new teachers, students, Catholic Secondary school chaplains and other invited guests on February 27th, at the beautiful Agha Khan Museum in Toronto. Sr. Helen is the author of the well known book and movie, “Dead Man Walking” and was with us to talk about mercy and her new book called “RIVER OF FIRE” a Reflection of Mercy, Forgiveness and Compassion. In her unique style, she kept everyone captivated and at the end of her talk, invited and answered questions from the floor.

Sr. Helen speaking to students of St Joseph’s College School, Toronto

Members of the Organizing Committee